*From the Desk of Our EA:
Our Partners in Romania*

Of all mornings to wake up not feeling well this day was not the day. Not only was it Mother’s Day, it was also the day our partners in Romania were hosting our evening service at First Centenary United Methodist Church. I woke up with a headache, an earache and nausea like I had never experienced in my life. I mean the kind of nausea that puts you down, the kind where you can’t even open your eyes or you’ll vomit; clearly something was off. I never have headaches or earaches or nausea. . . . I figured I would have my husband pray over me and go from there. I asked, he prayed, and I felt somewhat better. I could at least function.

Cristian Istrate and Rares Calugar pastor churches started in Romania. Cristian was preaching when I walked into our evening service at First-Centenary UMC. I sat down and listened. He was talking about the work of Christ in our lives. At the end of the service, he opened the alter up for prayer (something I think is lacking in most services). Anyway, I went up and hesitantly asked for prayer again since I was still feeling somewhat ill. He, Rares and Barry anointed me with oil, laid hands on me and began to pray.

A few moment later, as I walked away with no headache, no earache and no nausea—as I walked away healed—the following verse came to mind: “ And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name . . . they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.” (Mark 16:17-18)

Signs and wonders certainly follow our partners wherever they go. Clearly, Christ is in and at the center of their work—and I am grateful that we here at Mustard Tree get to be a part of that work.

Down on the Farm Meet Our New Intern : Aubrey Gardin

“All creatures great and small, the Lord God made them all.”

From a young age, Aubrey has always had a passion for helping our four-legged friends in need. A rising Senior at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, Aubrey is currently pursuing her B.S. in Biology: Pre-Veterinary Medicine, with a minor in Chemistry, and is currently in the process of applying to Vet School. Aubrey has worked with the K-5th youth at First Centenary UMC for the past three years, which sparked her involvement with Mustard Tree Ministries. If she’s not in class, working at the vet hospital, or at the farm, you can probably find Aubrey drinking coffee or adventuring with her pup, Kida. .

Aubrey will be with us for the summer. Please help us make her feel welcome! We are grateful for her service with MTM in the Kingdom of God!
